

Community Event

Saturday, August 7th

9:00 am - 1:00 pm

Douglass Recreation Complex
900 Block of Yuma Street

Free rides city-wide: the ATA bus will arrive/ depart the Douglass Recreation Complex stop on route 1, 9am-7pm, :27 and :55 after the hour.

9:00am - 11:00am

Free Health Screenings* medical, dental, diabetes, mental health, vision, hearing, sports physicals, COVID-19 vaccinations, blood pressure, and more.
(*subject to change)

Healthy Pets: basic preventative veterinary care for cats and dogs provided by KSU College of Vet Med.

9:00am - 1:00pm

Get Connected at booths sponsored by community organizations offering services, educational information, and volunteer opportunities.

Fun Activities for Children & Families: face painting, outdoor lawn games for families, and mini-Olympics- long jump, hurdles, bean-bag throw, a themed art activity and more!

Food Distributions

Flint Hills Breadbasket- 9:00am - 12:00 pm (information and breads/pastries)

Harvesters- 12:00pm - 1:00pm (quantities limited)

10:00am - 12:00pm

Free Community Brunch (provided by Hy-Vee)

First come, first served

Masks will be required in buildings where direct health services are provided. Masks and social distancing are encouraged in the outdoor setting.

Everybody Counts - Manhattan
everybodycountsmhk@gmail.com