

Community Event

Saturday, August 5th
9:00 am - 12:00 pm
Douglass Recreation Complex
900 Block of Yuma Street

Free Health Screenings* medical, dental, diabetes, mental health, vision, hearing, school/ sports physicals, vaccinations, blood pressure, and more.
(*subject to change)

Healthy Pets basic preventative veterinary care for cats and dogs provided by KSU College of Vet Med.

Get Connected at booths sponsored by community organizations offering services, educational information, and volunteer opportunities.

Fun Activities for Children & Families face painting, outdoor lawn games, soap bubbles, temporary tattoos, and more!

Clothing Distribution
Sponsored by Pilgrim Baptist Church

Food Distributions
Flint Hills Breadbasket- 9:00am - 11:00 am Harvesters- 11:00am - 12:00pm

Free Community Brunch provided by Hy-Vee
10:00am - 11am First come, first served

Free rides city-wide all day!
The ATA bus will arrive/ depart the Douglass Recreation Complex stop on route 1, 9am-7pm, :07 and :39 after the hour.

Everybody Counts - Manhattan everybodycountsmhk@gmail.com

Diversity · Unity · Community